

TROUBLES OF BUSINESS MEN.

AN UNUSUAL PROPOSITION TO CREDITORS—JUDGEMENTS ENTERED.

The extensive stock of Corn, Kaliskis & Co., dried in drygoods at Nos. 144 and 146 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth, inventory at $85,000, was sold out by the Sheriff yesterday under executions of about $15,000 in favor of Henry and Heyman Vogel. A meeting of the creditors will be held this afternoon at West End Hall, No. 226 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. It is expected that a fair and unusual proposition will be made to the creditors by the Messrs. Vogel. It is said they intend to place the proceeds of the Sheriff's sale of stock in a general fund for a pro rata distribution among all the creditors, the Messrs. Vogel to come in only for the same share as all the other creditors. Instead of taking all the proceeds by virtue of their executions, their offer is conditional on the creditors granting a release to Corn, Kaliskis & Co.

Judgment for $2,024 was yesterday entered against the failed Credit Indemnity Company, of No. 320 Broadway, in favor of Davis, Ludlow, & Co.

Judgment for $1,119 was yesterday entered against John Hamilton Jaffee, of Yonkers, in favor of William S. Martin, on a promissory note dated November 21, 1900, for $1,000, payable in one year, on which the interest had been paid up to November 21, 1894.

Judgment for $5,447 was yesterday entered against Walter M. Jackson, president of the Gas Consumers' Benefit Company of the United States, in favor of William B. Baldwin.

The attachment for $1,007 which Police Commissioner sloane McClave obtained against Owen Cumiskey, manufacturer of candle trim at No. 147 Eleventh-street, has been vacated by order of Judge Beach of the Supreme Court.

Joseph Utal, manufacturer of furs at No. 260 Greenwich-st., has been closed up by the Sheriff on an execution for $857 in favor of B. Reiss.

Deficiency judgments for $7,000 were yesterday entered against Joseph D. Mayer in favor of Randolph Guggenheim and Solomon Marx.

At a meeting of the creditors of Bernstein & Reiss, stock manufacturers, of No. 36 Walker-st., held yesterday at the offices of Elmhurst & Birns, No. 295 Broadway, the firm submitted an offer to pay to 70 cents on the dollar in notes at two and four months from July 1, satisfactorily secured, which was favorably received.

GENERAL COLLINS'S MISSION.

Boston, June 13.—General P. A. Collins has just returned to Europe, whether he went about the middle of May for the purpose of endeavoring to heal the breach that has existed in the Irish party for the last two years. While the main object, the getting of both sides to unite under one leader, was not in fact accomplished, the leaders on both sides, he says, are now, for the first time since the rupture of the party on friendly terms, and no harsh language or bitter denunciations of opponents will be imported into the campaign on either side. General Collins said to-day that the principal conference of the two factions took place in Dublin on June 1. said he. "It was agreed in advance that whatever took place in the event of our not accomplishing some large results should not be disclosed. It would be hardly fair to either side or to me, standing between them, to disclose the claims and concessions made or the arguments employed during our discussions. All I can say is that the discussions were good natured, frank and full, and that we all agreed that, under the circumstances, the campaign would have to be continued through the influence of the different candidates, the leaders and the press. You may be quite certain that I did not go there as a volunteer, much less as a mediator in their business. What I did was at their request and at their earnest request. I believe, however, that bringing the leading men of the two divisions in the Irish party together for the first time in many months will be fruitful of good results, and that we may easily look to an end of all misunderstanding and a general union of all the forces."

MORE SMALL-POX PATIENTS DISCOVERED.

James H. Cooper was the name of the colored man who went to Police Headquarters on Sunday, suffering from smallpox. His home was at No. 3 Minetta Lane. Alonso Prince, another colored man, of No. 116 Madison-west, went to the Bureau of Contagious Diseases in Mulberry-st., yesterday suffering from smallpox and was sent to North Brother Island. Three other sufferers from the disease were sent to the island. They were David Schwarz, of No. 26 Avenue C; Maria Rivers, of No. 273 Hudson, and Otto Davis, of No. 500 East Twelfth-st.

Schwarz went to Oil City, Penn., a week ago, and on Thursday he became ill in Franklin, Penn. A physician examined him, but did not recognize the disease. At Warsaw, Penn., and Olana, N. Y., on following days, he was examined by physicians who could not tell what was the matter with him. He returned to his home in New York on Saturday evening having thusly exposed many persons to the contagion.

LAWN TENNIS IN HOT WEATHER.

Despite the intense heat of yesterday afternoon the Central Park tennis players continued their annual spring handicap tournament for men's singles on the "upper grounds." In the semi-final round A stone hill and J. Parry, Parry met at odds of half-thirty. The latter was the scratch man of the tournament, but the handicap was a heavy one, and it took these closely contested sets to decide the match. In the first set Parry started by playing a "net" game, but first set "balled" rapidly and with good judgment, and passed his opponent at the net several times. In the second set Parry played "safe" throughout, but Stomhill drove the slow balls with great certainty back into his opponent's court, and the rallies were long and rather intersting. The scratch player, however, kept the set well in hand, leading at 4-2 and 5-3, and finally winning by 6-4. In the third and last set, after "2-all" had been called, Parry made a decided break and won four out of the next five games, securing the set and the match. He will play Von Prang in the final round for first prize this morning at the "upper" Park courts. Von Prang will receive a handicap of thirty from Parry.

The score of the tournament follow: Preliminary round—O. M. Bestwick (scratch), beat J. Cook (fifteen), 6-1, 6-1. First round—H. M. Craft (half forty), beat E. Naumburg (half forty), 6-1, 6-4; second round—A. Stomhill (half thirty), beat A. Kelly (half thirty), 4-6, 6-2, 6-4; J. Parry (scratch), beat O. M. Bestwick (scratch), 6-2, 6-3. Second round—H. Von Prang (thirty), beat H. M. Craft (half forty), 6-1, 6-3; J. Parry (scratch), beat A. Stomhill (half thirty), 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

THE OZIE'S GIFT TO CAPTAIN SARGENT.

Philadelphia, June 15.—The emerald goblet presented by the Czar to Captain R. W. Sargent of the steamship Indiana, in recognition of his single's tennis handicap tournament for men's singles on the "upper grounds." In the semi-final round A stone hill and J. Parry, Parry met at odds of half-thirty. The latter was the scratch man of the tournament, but the handicap was a heavy one, and it took these closely contested sets to decide the match. TOOK FOUR HOURS TO GET THIS HORSE OUT.

To get at a broken water-pipe working down a trench half way across Green-st. in front of Benjamin & Caspary's shop at No. 54, yesterday morning, and made a tunnel under the horse-car track in the street. A team of big gray horses belonging to Spence Kerr, a truckman, passed close to the trench at 11 a. m., one of the horses slid and fell in, nearly dragging down its mate. The horse fell upon John Clark, who was at work in the trench, and struck him in such a way as to throw him under the car track. Clark received a serious scalp wound, but he managed to climb out of the excavation.

The horse settled down in the trench, filling it so tightly as to be unable to kick. Ice-water was poured on the horses head and bridle and was poured down its throat at intervals. An ambulance of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was called to the place and a derrick was set up, but it took nearly four hours to get the horse out of the hole. The animal was still alive and did not appear to have been injured seriously. It was taken away in the society's ambulance.
